United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia In Re: The Matter of the Reappointment of Janet F. King and Russell G. Vineyard as United States Magistrate Judges

The current terms of office of United States Magistrate Judges Janet F. King and Russell G. Vineyard at Atlanta, Georgia are due to expire on October 19, and October 22, 2014, respectively. The United States District Court is required by law to establish a panel of citizens to consider the reappointment of the magistrate judges to new eight-year terms.

The duties of a magistrate judge in the Northern District of Georgia include the following:

1. The trial and disposition of virtually all categories of civil actions with consent of the parties in accord with 28 U.S.C. § 636(c);
2. Pursuant to the court's General Orders of Reference, presiding over all aspects of civil cases, through the entry of a recommendation for final disposition under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b);
3. Ruling on various pretrial matters and holding evidentiary proceedings on references from the district court judges made in addition to the general orders, including discovery issues and other non-dispositive motions;
4. Conducting settlement conference or mediation in civil actions by reference;
5. Performing such other duties as set out in the Local Rules of the Northern District of Georgia;
6. Conducting preliminary proceedings in felony criminal cases, including initial appearances, bond/detention hearings and arraignments;
7. Issuing warrants of arrest, search warrants and warrants in administrative actions;
8. Ruling on all non-dispositive motions in felony criminal cases or entering findings and recommendations with respect to dispositive criminal motions such as motions to dismiss or to suppress evidence; and
9. Conducting preliminary reviews and making recommendations regarding the disposition of prisoner civil rights complaints and habeas corpus petitions. Conducting such evidentiary proceedings as may be required in prisoner and habeas corpus actions.

Comments from members of the bar and the public are invited as to whether the incumbent magistrate judges should be recommended by the panel for reappointment by the court and should be directed to:
